

5 Supercharged Benefits of Giving Through Your Will

Your will (or trust) is both an important and powerful document.

A completed, legal will allows you to proactively care for your loved ones' needs, and it ensures your God-given resources are transferred in a way that reflects your faith and values.

What's more, when you include charitable gifts in your will, you experience five supercharged giving benefits.

- Legacy. Extend the impact of your generosity, well beyond your lifetime.
- Satisfaction. When you make the decision to name Multiplication Network Ministries and other ministries in your will, you experience the joy of putting your resources to work for Kingdom purposes.
- Availability. Retain access to your resources for the remainder of your lifetime, or for as long as you need them.
- Flexibility. Change your mind at any time about how your charitable gifts are designated.
- Capacity. Potentially give a larger gift that far exceeds what would be possible during your lifetime.
